Continuous Improvement – Planning for a Successful 2021
Session Leader: Tim Naylor, Regional Risk Control Manager

As the end of the year approaches, this session will provide a simple framework for reviewing your safety efforts, results and priorities for next year. 2020 has been a challenging year for many reasons and may even cause you to rethink safety priorities. But the four step-planning process presented in this session: 1) Reviewing Results, 2) Prioritizing Issues, 3) Developing Objectives, and, 4) Formulating Plans will help your organization and you arrive at your conclusions with more certainty. By treating your safety efforts as a safety management system that can be improved every year, you will see continuous gains as an organization.

December 10, 2020 – 10:30 AM (EDT), 9:30 AM (CDT) – Duration: 60 minutes
Employee Health and Workers' Compensation: What the Research Reveals
Session Leaders: Janet Byers, Regional Risk Control Manager, and Kim Kokatay, Sr. Business Analyst

PMA Companies' conducted a study of its clients and found the impact that employees' comorbidities have on workers' compensation claim costs is undeniable and profound. We will share the highlights with you and discuss the importance of holistic risk factor identification and collaboration within your organization to find solutions that address the total health of the worker. You'll also learn three action steps you can implement immediately to begin your journey towards an integrated approach and improve workers' compensation claim outcomes.
