- Presentation of the following proposed rule:
  - Marriage Ceremony For Incarcerated Individuals, Agency of Human Services, Vermont Department of Corrections
    - Due to the update in 18 V.S.A. § 5142, raising the legal age of marriage to 18 regardless of parental consent the Vermont Department of Corrections (DOC) needs to amend the "Inmate Marriage Rule" to no longer allow marriages of incarcerated individuals who are under the age of 18. It is not within the DOC's authority or mission to determine if someone is eligible to get married. The proposed rule would require the incarcerated individual to submit a request for a marriage ceremony. The incarcerated individual or intended spouse would need to submit proof of the marriage license to the DOC prior to the marriage ceremony. Then the DOC will then review the request and approve the marriage ceremony provided there are no legitimate penological interest concerns.
